INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

I know Louis M. Franklin; his mother said he was Cherokee Indian. When we were boys he was called Little Indian. His parents lived in tents with the Indians so his mother said. They came from Cherokee County, N.C. to Gilmore County, Ga., when I was a small boy. His people came and bought adjoining farms to my father. His father spoke the Indian language and his mother also. I do not know if they ever received any Indian money from the government. His father went to Morganton, N.C. and I never saw him again. This was a good while before the war.

App. #10823.

June 17, 1907.

Louisa Harrison,

Neosho, Route No. 2,

Missouri.

Madam:-

Your letter of June 4, 1907, relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund, is at hand.

You are advised that none of the applications have been taken up for final consideration as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 25,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Three application blanks are inclosed, for your adult children.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Wm. Francis Lewis being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 44 years of age. I claim my Indian descent through my mother; my father was a full blooded white man. My mother was born in 1826 and died in 1889. She was born in Buncombe Co., N.C. She left N. C. in 1845 and went to Cooke Co., Tenn. She lived there until she died. She claimed Indian descent through her mother. She was also born in N. C. I think in Buncombe Co. My mother claimed to be 1/4 or 1/5 Cherokee. I don't know whether my mother or her mother ever lived with the Indians as members of the tribe or not. They lived there in N. C. with them. Don't know whether either of them were ever on any Indian rolls or ever received anything from the government. My mother was recognized as a mixed blooded woman. My grandmother showed the Indian blood very much. This is the only application I ever made for Indian benefits. All of us have married white people.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of September 5, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, and we cannot state at this time whether or not you are entitled to share in this fund, or the amount each successful claimant will receive.

As there are over 40,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the matter of the Cherokee Nation's application for a grant of land in the State of Georgia. The Department of the Interior is now considering the same and will advise you of the result as soon as possible.

Very respectfully,
J. B. Smith, Secretary

I also heard her say she was enrolled in a course but was never enrolled it is probably not beginning the work the reason being of our connection she never enrolled any self.
I do not think there necessary at the age till 1856 when it was necessary for her the instruction has very good value and she has been among the best of her friends and she was 45 years old when she left school and while getting some others at the age of 21 years old before

Sir:-

Relative to your application #3091 on file in this office for share of money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians, will say that the name of your mother, Martha, (or Pattie) Hobgood, nee Lowe, daughter of Thomas Lowe, (or Indian Tom) does not appear upon the rolls of 1851 or 1835.

You state that you were born in Anson County, N.C., October 30, 1839. If you are of Cherokee Indian blood, why were you not enrolled upon the roll of 1851 in North Carolina? Do you know of any reason why you were not enrolled, why your mother was not enrolled, and why your grandfather, Thomas Lowe, was not enrolled in 1851? Please furnish this office with the name of the wife of said Thomas Lowe (or Indian Tom) and both Indian and English names of the father and mother of said Indian Tom. Was your mother, Martha (or Pattie) Hobgood, a full-blood Cherokee Indian? If she was not, to what race did she belong? Was her mother an Indian woman or a slave? Was the said Thomas Lowe (or Indian Tom) a full-blood Cherokee Indian, or to what race did he belong.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

J. A. Beacham,

Sir:-

Your letter of June 25, 1907, giving the correct name of your mother, is at hand.

The supplemental application for your minor child has also been received and placed on file.

You are further advised that the applications have not been taken up for final consideration, as the time for the filing of these applications does not expire until August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 27,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your favor of 21st inst, beg to say that my name is Sherwood Thomas Morse, and not Thomas S. Morse, but I am the same man that made application through Mr. A. E. Wallace, atty
at Law. Chicago, Ill, on Nov.
5th 1906, for participation in Boston
Cherokee Fund, One Mr. J. E.
Arnold was here and made out my application and sent same in through Mr. A. E. Wallace atty and if there is a mistake in my name it was done by him, I can show by the Justice of the Peace who testified to it that I am the man, and I think if you will look at the original application you will find that while it may be Thomas S. Morse in the body, but that I signed it S. T. Morse, which is my usual way of signing my name, I do not remember looking at the way he spelled my name, but know that I told him Sherwood Thomas Morse was my name,

(over)

The Rev. W. C. Webb, Justice of the Peace, Concord, N. C. was the Justice of the Peace before whom I, and a lot of others signed the application.

I trust this will settle the matter, and that if there is a mistake in my initials that it may be corrected. My application number is 10884.

My minor childrens names
are Mauda Thomas Mosse, Leslie Lillie Mosse, Sherwood Lee
Mosse and Mammie Pearl Mosse.

So you will please send me supplemental application for Jesse Minors.

If this is not satisfactory, please state and I will try to furnish any additional information.

I will state that I am a Grand Son of Thomas Lawson
"Indian Tom" whom we have shown by affidavits was a three quarter black eastern Min-sker Indian.

I am yours very truly,

November, 4th 1907,

Hon. Union Miller, Special Agent,

Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:-

I herewith enclose my application
No. 10844, corrected, also supplemental application for my Minor Children.

I trust this will be satisfactory.

The mistake occurred on account of the fact that J. E. Arnolds wife filled out my application, and it was night and she was in a hurry and she got my initials crossed, that is she got the Thomas before the S. I told her that my name was Sherwood Thomas Morse, and that I signed my name
S. T. Morse, but she said go ahead and sign it Thomas S. Morse, as she had it that way in the body of the application, which I saw.
Arnold was present but his wife
saw the writing.

Yours truly,
S. T. Morse.

P.S. The enclosed application is the one I signed Nov. 5th 1906,

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter of recent date relative to filing Supplemental application for my minor children for their share of the Eastern Cherokee Indian appropriation.

Some considerable while ago, I filed claim for myself, and all my children that were of age filed a claim. I also filed a claim then for all my minor children.

You will please advise me by return mail if it is necessary for me to now file the Supplemental application, or will the original ones answer?

Yours Very Truly,

App. # 10846.

July 2, 1907.

Julia A. Bray,
Cordova,
North Carolina.

Madam:-

Your letter of June 25, 1907, relative to when the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees will be paid, is at hand.

The supplemental application for your minor children has also been received and placed on file.

You are further advised that the applications have not been taken up for final consideration, as the time for the filing of these applications does not expire until August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 27,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Very respectfully,

NLC.

Special Commissioner.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of September 10, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, and we cannot state at this time whether or not you are entitled to share in this fund, or the amount each successful claimant will receive.

As there are over 40,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Dear Sir:-

My father and mother moved to Texas from Tennessee in 1851 - My father was a white man, my mother part indian and I do not <sup>know</sup> why they were not enrolled in 1851 - They probably did not know that they were entitled to be enrolled - I do not know why my grand parents were never enrolled - I have never been enrolled because I never tried before - Two of my brothers, who lived in the Indian Territory talked about trying to get us enrolled, but they both died before doing so - My grand father Wm Noble Griffin lived in a teepee he being a Cherokee indian my mother told me - This was in Alabama and they were members of this tribe - My grand<sup>mother</sup> was a white woman and grand father Griffin an Indian - They moved from Alabama to Tennessee.

My grand father and grand mother Griffin lived with this tribe as I say in Alabama since 1800 - Two of my brothers say they examined the rolls and found the name Griffin on them - Ezra and Andrew Morrison told me the names were there but as I say they are both dead -
My grand father and grand mother left Alabama for Tennessee before the treaty was made - I thought after my brother died I would try to be enrolled - Every one who sees us say we look like Indian descendants - I send pictures of my mother, myself and one of my brothers - Please return them to me - I know absolutely that we are of the Cherokee Indian tribe and descent because my people all say so -
Very truly
Aunt Jane Barnes

Sir:-

Your letter of June 20, 1907, relative to the application of Cora Goodwin, is at hand.

You are advised that the applications have not been taken up for final consideration as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, an abstract of which is herewith inclosed, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 26,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Wise cases

Alfred Weaver.

Alfred Weaver being first duly sworn deposes and says:

I am 73 years old, and I live in Grant County. I come from N.C. I came in 1844. I am acquainted with Charity Moore, she was my first wife. She lives now in Wis. I was divorced from her about 30 years ago. Her father was Micaga ~~Witson~~ Revels. I knew him down in Howard County, Ind. He came from Guilford County in 1840. He always claimed to be part Cherokee Indian ever since I knew him. Charity Moore is the daughter of Revels. ~~Mary E.~~ Mary E. Smith and Linthy Prim are the daughters of Charity Moore. I have heard Micaga Revels talk many a time about his Indian blood. ~~He~~ I do not know how he was recognized in N.C. in regard to his Indian blood, as I have only known him since he came here. He died up in Wis. He died in 1883. He appeared to be an Indian. I never heard him say that got any money from the Government on account of his Indian blood.

No. 10886. ALAFORD WEAVER.

of this claimant together with those of other claimants tracing descent through the same source statements are
The applications ~~grouped with this member are each and~~ every one rejected for the following reasons based on ~~evidence~~ statements furnished the Special Commissioner by the attorneys for the claimants, Messrs. Britton & Gray, together with the allegations contained in the applications.

The applicants all claim through the same original source, viz: Stephen Revels and McCaga Revels. Stephen Revels was found frozen to death some where in the Rocky Mountains of Georgia in 1802. It is alleged that he was a member of the Cherokee Tribe, but as he died in 1802, he was not a party to the treaty of 1835, and, of course, he was not enrolled in 1835. McCaga Revels, who was a son of Stephen Revels, ~~was said~~ to have been born in 1800 on Tallahatchie River reservation of the Cherokees. there is nothing or records show that he was of Cherokee blood but if he was, he about the latter date. He moved to a locality about forty miles northwest of Macon, Georgia, in which neighborhood his brothers, Henry and John, lived. In 1820 neither McCaga nor his brothers, Henry and John, were living within the limits of the Cherokee nation. McCaga is said to have disagreed with the other members of his family on the question of slavery, and because of this disagreement removed to Robeson County, N. C. which is a distance of three hundred miles from the ~~Cherokee~~ then Cherokee domain.

~~nation.~~ In 1830 he is said to have moved into Fayette county, Georgia, and in 1835 he emigrated to Orange county, Indiana.

About the year 1854 he moved into Wisconsin, where he lived until his death in 1868. From this statement it is evident that neither Stephen nor McCaga Revels ~~were~~ living within the limits of the tribe any later than 1820. Neither Stephen nor McCaga ~~were~~ ever enrolled, and the name Revels does not appear on the Roll of 1835 or 1851. It is therefore evident that McCaga Revels, through whom all these applicants claim, was not a recognized Cherokee Indian by blood at the date of the treaties of 1835-6 or 1846.

Answers to Question in Special Commissioner's Inquiry of February 4, 1903, in re Stephen Revels and McCara Revels.

1. Yes.

2. Stephen was found frozen to death in 1802 in the Rocky Mountains of Georgia; was then a member of the tribe of Cherokees. He had always lived with the tribe, spoke their language, and adhered to their customs. He was married by tribal custom to Delilah Pullard in 1778. Their children were sons Henry, John, William, McCara, and one daughter Annie.

McCara Revels (son) was born in 1800 on Tallahatchie River Cherokee Reservation. McCara Revels left the tribe about 1818 or 1820. McCara Revels married Monon Jacobs about 1820, tribal marriage; then moved to a locality about 40 miles northwest of <sup>50</sup> Macon, Ga., in the neighborhood of his older brothers Henry and John. They owned slaves. McCara disagreed with them on slavery, and moved with his family to Robeson <sup>300</sup> county, N.C. He then had six children, Edward, Jane, Delaney, Aaron, Elizabeth and Stephen, Jr. In 1830 McCara Revels and family moved to <sup>40</sup> Hayette county, Georgia. In 1834 or '35 he emigrated to Grange county, Ind. Here William, John, Henry and Effie Revels were born to McCara and Monon Revels. In 1847 McCara moved with his family to Hamilton county, Ind. In 1854 he moved to Wisconsin with his family and located in Town 14, Range 1 West, Vernon county. McCara died Apr. 12, 1883.

3. Stephen Revels followed the occupation of hunting and fishing. McCara Revels did not believe in slavery and separated from the rest of Stephen's family. The descendants of McCara Revels followed his fortunes and adhered to his anti-slavery belief.

4. Stephen Revels lied before the enrollment was made. McCaga Revels left the tribe at the time of his marriage on account of non-belief in slavery. This was before the enrolment.

 persons".

Mr. N. L. Crawford,

Chief Clerk Eastern Cherokee Enrollments,

601 Ouray Building,

Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Your favor of the 4th inst., initial F. S. I., application No. 10886, received, and in reply have to state that I was a very young lad at the time of the death of my grand-parents, and have been unable to ascertain the reason of their nonenrollment as Eastern Cherokees. I was born in Woneewoc, Juneau county, Wisconsin, and never made application to be enrolled as a member of the Cherokee Nation. As far as I know none of my ancestors were slaves. I make the claim to participate in this fund through McCaga Revels. I am unable to state whether McCaga Revels ever lived with the Cherokee tribe, and have no knowledge as to the year he left the tribe. The information that I have obtained relative to this matter has been obtained from my mother, who is now so old and feeble that it is quite impossible to obtain any additional facts from her.

Very respectfully,

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the decree of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, please state why your parents were never enrolled as Eastern Cherokees? Why have you never been enrolled. Why have your grandparents never been enrolled?

Were any of your ancestors slaves? Do you claim the right to participate in this fund through any other source than blood descent? Did Melaga Devel's father live with the Cherokee tribe, and if so, about what year did he leave the tribe?

Give any other information of value tending to establish your right to participate in this fund.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Dear Sir:-

In reply to yours of the 4th. instant in regard to the application of Susanna Walker, No. 10894 will say the Cherokee name of Little Walker, Grand-father of the applicant was A-da-hi-usta which properly translated means Walker Little. Little Walkers mother was I-u-gui, he had a brother, De-coc-yi-ski. If Little Walker had a wife in 1851 her name was Quatie (Betty) Usta. This woman was his first wife and not the Grand-mother of the applicant.

The applicants Grand-mother, Susie Walker had no Cherokee name except Su-si. Her mother was Quatsie (Betsy) who married Te-goo-geet Colston. Susie Walker first married Wi-lu-ga Te-goo-geet Colston and may have been his wife in 1851. Susie Walker had <sup>a</sup>brothers, La-tsi and <sup>Sisters</sup>Si-li and ~~a~~sister, Ne-li.

Little Walker and Susie were married about 1861. Is my best information that all of these persons who were living in 1851 were living in Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.

— Little Walker was known by that name till about 1866 and after that time he was enrolled on the Cherokee rolls as Walker Buzzard, he died Oct. 1899. Susie Walker died about 1875.

If more information is required I will be glad to furnish any if I can do so.

Very truly,

Jane Cornuta
